FIRELADIES PLAN POTLUCK SUPPER

The regular monthly meeting of the Torrance Fireladies was held Monday, June 3, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Benner. Mrs. Ed Polston was co-hostess.

Plans for a pot-luck supper at the park were discussed for the coming week-end.

Mrs. Polston, president, presided over the meeting and the following members attended: Mmes. Frank Tuttle, Robert Browning, Ted Drake, Walt West, Bob Moffitt, Ray Flagg, Charles Reintsma, Sam Martin, Harlan Whitacre, John Millard, J. J. Benner, Neil Whitney, Ray Stratton, James Wass, Milton Langum, and Ed Polston.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Brandmire, 1330 West R. St., Wilmington, was stunning in a ballerina-length wedding gown of ice blue ruffles over pale blue taffeta covered by panels of chantille lace. The bodice was distinctive with cap sleeves, and elbow length lace mitts, a sweetheart neckline. She wore a shoulder-length veil of ice blue net which fell from a crown outlined in seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her bouquet also carried out the ice-blue theme in a fan-shaped array of white orchids and stephanotis with ice-blue streamers.

Mrs. William Stellway, matron of honor, and the three bridesmaids wore princess style dresses of silk lace over taffeta. Mrs. Stellway's dress was in pink and she carried a deep pink carnation nosegay.

Bridesmaids were Mmes. William Blank, Marvin Kerbel, and Richard Stahl. They wore blue dresses and carried light pink carnation nosegays. Debbie French, and Vicki Stellway, the bride's niece, preceded the bride as flower girls in dresses of pink nylon, carrying pink baskets with white carnations.

Men in the wedding party included Carlos French, best man, and ushers Charles Beville, George Licht, and William Licht. Little George Jenkins, the bride's cousin, was ring bearer.

Mrs. Brandmire, mother of the bride, wore a lace dress of light blue with white accessories. Mrs. Licht, the groom's mother, wore a dress of light blue with white accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

The reception was held at the Moose hall where Mrs. Carlos French was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Robert Arrey helped register the gifts. The couple left for a honeymoon in Las Vegas.

The bride is a graduate of Banning High school, Wilmington, and is employed at Douglas Aircraft. The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Licht, 1618 W. 216th st., graduated from Narbonne High school, Lomita, and is employed at Columbia Steel.

END-OF-YEAR REPORT MADE BY SOROPTIMISTS

On June 3, at the regular luncheon meeting of the Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist Club held at the Palms in Torrance, Margaret Neff, president, conducted the business meeting at which the yearly reports were given.

Ruth Davis was voted a director for a one year term. Kay Doss, recording secretary, read the minutes of the previous months' meetings, after which the following members read their reports for the year: Edna Walthers, assimilation and extension; Winona Ellis, classification, bulletin, and membership roster; Kay Doss, membership; Dorthe Kirkpatrick, international understanding and goodwill; Frances Dimitri, publicity and program; LaVilla McMillan, public affairs, attendance, and service objectives; Helen Rodgers, education; and Clara

Conner, civic program. Due to their absence because of a trip to Hawaii, Pearl Groot's report on Aid to Girls and Margaret Herrons' report on Public Relations was read by Edna Walthers.

To read their reports later are Mary Pagac, finance; Helen Parrish, ways and means and correspondence; and Frances Stephan, service objectives. The president's report was read by

Given away in marriage by her father, the bride wore an exquisite gown of white tulle and lace over satin with a bouffant floor length skirt. Her crown was held in place by an illusion finger-tip veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and carnations.

Miss Norma Wagers was the maid of honor in a yellow tulle dress and she carried yellow roses. Other attendants to the bride were Mrs. William Winham and Mrs. Bud Nickolaion. They wore contrasting pink tulle dresses and carried pink carnations.

William Winham was best man and Clyde Denham and Bud Nickolaion ushered the guests to their seats.

Renee Barnes, soloist, sang the "Lord's Prayer" and "True Love."

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Mans, wore a dress of grey lace-over-pink taffeta and the groom's mother, Mrs. Boland, wore blue lace over blue taffeta. Both mothers were presented orchid corsages.

The reception followed at the church hall. Dee Martin was in charge of the gifts; Mmes. Cecil Coughlin, Harold McMann, and Earl Anderson served; and Everett Mans, the bride's brother, was in charge of the guest book.

For her going-away outfit, the bride wore a black and white striped sheath dress with a black bolero jacket and black accessories. The couple are honeymooning in Yosemite and Las Vegas.

Both the bride and groom graduated from Torrance High school and attended El Camino college. Boland, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldrof Boland, 113 Ave. H, Redondo Beach, is in the shoe repair business.

New residence of the couple will be 113 Paseo de la Playa, Hollywood Riviera.

New Residence

Dreams will become a reality when the first phase of the YWCA Forward Step campaign is completed with the dedication of the Residence Hall at 437 W. 9th st., San Pedro, on Sunday, June 9, at 2:30 p.m.

Next regular luncheon meeting will be June 10 at the Palms. Guest speaker will be Doug Horlander whose subject will deal with civil defense.
